

age of which he is the driver, shall for every such offence incur such penalty, not exceeding twenty dollars, as shall be adjudged by the mayor of the said city or any justice of the peace therein, before whom complaint shall be made by or on behalf of the party injured.

1865, ch 80.

139. The proprietors of any hackney carriage in the city of Baltimore who do not intend to go upon or use the public stands in said city with such hackney carriages, shall at the time of applying for a license for the same, as required by the present or any future ordinances of the mayor and city council of Baltimore, signify in writing such intention, and thereupon a special license may and shall be granted to such proprietors by the comptroller or other proper officer of said city; and for every special license thus granted there shall be paid such sum as is now or shall hereafter become payable for other hackney carriages by the present or future ordinances of said city.

Ibid.

140. No hackney carriages which shall be thus especially licensed shall make use of or go upon or stand or wait for employment at any of the public stands designated by or under the present or any future ordinances of the mayor and city council of Baltimore, or at any place in said city, except the premises of the owner thereof, under a penalty of twenty dollars for every such offence; one-half to be paid to the informer, to be recovered against either the owner or driver thereof, as fines of a like amount are now recovered.

Ibid.

141. Each and every proprietor of hackney carriages shall, at the time when he applies for a special license, or any renewal thereof, furnish the comptroller or other proper officer of the city of Baltimore with a correct statement of the number of hackney carriages used by him; and such owner, whenever he shall increase the number of such hackney carriages, shall report such increase to the comptroller or other proper officer of said city; and every person violating any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit his license, and be liable to a penalty of ten dollars.
